

Program Name: Hibernating, Migrating, and Just Deal with It! Grade: Third

Objective (3rd Grade): The student will investigate and understand that behavioral and physical adaptations allow animals to respond to life needs. Objective (4th Grade): The student will investigate and understand how plants and animals in Virginia ecosystems interact with one another and with the non-living environment. Description: Students will learn the difference between hibernation, migration, instinct, and learned behavior, as well as an animal's' behavioral adaptations to help it live in its specific habitat.	Activities & Resources: Teacher resource book with lesson plan Display boards: Hibernation Migration Just Deal with It Books: Animal Habitats Animal Hibernating Animal Migrating Ebbie & Flo It's a Hummingbird's Life It's a Butterfly's Life Nuts to You! Puppets: Groundhog puppet Hummingbird puppet Polar Bear puppet Activities: Groundhog Craft Arctic Tern Craft Winter Adaptation Word Search Sheet Arctic Tern Coloring Sheet Migration Maze Activity Sheet	SOL 's: 3.4a Format and Requirements" District staff can present the program. Each classroom presentation (CP) is approximately 45 minutes in length. Teachers may borrow the conservation capsule (CC) for one week.
---	--	--