

Program Name: Migration

Grade(s): Third and Fourth

Objective (3rd Grade): The student will investigate and understand that behavioral and physical adaptations allow animals to respond to life needs. Objective (4th Grade): The student will investigate and understand how plants and animals in Virginia ecosystems interact with one another and with the non-living environment. Description: This is an interactive program on the learned migrating behavior of several species, including the Monarch butterfly, gray whale, and arctic tern. 	Activities &amp; Resources: Teacher resource notebook with lesson plans Display board: Bird Flight Activities: Travel Activity “Where Are They Going?” Sea Turtle “Wheel of Trouble” Arctic Tern Activity Puppets: Hummingbird Butterfly Crab Turtle Shark Books &amp; DVDs: Amazing Journeys, DVD A Tern’s Journey, DVD Shad, the Long Journey Home Video Tundra Swans, “Fly North Big Bird”, Video Feathered Travelers Flute’s Journey The American Bison Animals Migrating Birds, Nature’s Magnificent Flying Machines	SOL 's: 3.4a and 4.5a Format: Teachers may borrow the conservation capsule (CC) for one week.
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------